SEDITIOUS PAPERS

PROTEST AGAINST LIGHT SENTENCE

"REDS" AND DOCK WORKERS

Mr. J. M. Remedios entered a plea of guilty on behalf of Yu Wang (28) in the remand case in which he, together with Fan Pui (20), who was not legally represented, were charged before Mr. T. S. Whyte-Smith on Saturday, with being in unlawful possession of sedition literature in Hong Kong on September 7.

An additional charge was added against the second defendant, of being in possession of such pamphlets with a view to persuading the people to do an act contrary to the maintenance of peace on the Colony. The first defendant pleaded guilty to the original charge.

Mr. Remedios asked his Worship for leniency in view of his client's age, 23, and added that it was his first offence. He added that his client could not read Chinese whereon his Worship remarked that he should have known that the papers contained seditious matter.

Det.-Inspector Fallon pointed out to his Worship that he objected to a fine being imposed, and said that the penalty was six or twelve months' hard labour. He added that he had actually arrested the defendant himself in the act of distributing the pamphlets among the dock workers at noon in Dock Street on September 7.

His Worship remarked to the prosecuting officer that he thought that sedition was under definition number 5 B, that is, "encouraging and enticing people to interfere with the maintenance of law and order." Secondly, it meant to "bring into contempt the Government of the Colony," but nothing to that effect had been done. What does your client do Remedios?

Mr. Remedios: No occupation, but he is, I understand, a gardener defendant to two months' imprisonment.

Stole for Hunger
That he wanted them to pawn it, and get some money for food was the excuse offered by Tong Shukuen (18) a fok of the Hing Lung Knitting Factory who was charged with the theft of five woolen pullovers valued at $17. in all, the property of the manager of the firm.

His Worship sentenced the defendant to two months' imprisonment.

Cycling Offence
A fine of $8 was imposed on a Chinese cook for riding his hired bicycle without a properly lighted lamp in Woosung Street at 1:30 a.m. on Saturday.

Divisional Inspector R. A. Marks pointed out to his Worship that all the restaurant workers hired bicycles after two in the morning and rode up and down Nathan Road. He added that the cycle shops were opened all night, and that some steps should be taken in regard to it, as there has been some correspondence in the matter.

Regarding the second defendant, Inspector Fallon said that the papers in this case were entirely different from the first case. He was arrested in Dock Street carrying a parcel wrapped in green and when it was opened it was found to contain sedition literature.

Defendant stated that he was given this to carry while his friend went to buy cigarettes. He did not know what was in the parcel.

He was remanded till Thursday also.

Inspector Fallon remarked strongly that the literature was not "patriotic" at all, as the word "outrageous" was mentioned in one of the slogans.

Mr. Remedios: It may result in another civil war! (Laughter).

Both admitted to his Worship that the papers were not against the Hong Kong Government at all, but were merely Imperialist slogans against the Provincial Government of China.

LESSON-SERMON

FIRST CHURCH OF CHRIST, SCIENTIST, HONG KONG

"Matter" was the subject of the Lesson-Sermon in all Churches of Christ, Scientist, on Sunday, September 22.

The Golden Text was: "In God I will praise his word, in God I have put my trust; I will not fear what flesh can do unto me" (Psalms 56:4).

Among the citations which comprised the Lesson-Sermon was the following from the Bible: "And great multitudes came unto him, having with them those that were lame, blind, dumb, maimed, and many other, and cast them down at Jesus' feet; and he healed them: Insomuch that the multitude wondered, when they saw the dumb to speak, the maimed to be whole, the lame to walk, and the blind to see; and they glorified the God of Israel" (Matt. 15:30, 31).

The Lesson-Sermon also included the following passages from the Christian Science textbook, "Science and Health with Key to the Scriptures," by Mary Baker Eddy: "Our Master treated error through Mind. He never enjoined obedience to the laws of nature, if by these are meant laws of matter; nor did he use drugs. There is a law of God applicable to healing, and it is a spiritual law instead of material" (p. 463).

NEW STEAMER

"TAI YUAN" LANDED
AT TOKYO

FIRST OF NEW CLASS

The s.s. "Taiyuan," which was successfully launched at Takao Dockyard on Saturday, has been constructed to the order of the China Navigation Co., Ltd., and is 325 feet in length, with a beam of 45 feet and depth moulded to upper deck of 24 feet 9 inches, carrying a leadweight of about 3,200 tons on 18 feet draft. The vessel is built on the deep framed system and has two complete decks and poop; bridge and forecastle. The scutlings of the vessel have been approved by the British Corporation and generally supervised during construction by the Hong Kong Government to obtain their Passenger Certificate.

Provision Against Piracy

Accommodation for the crew has been arranged forward, and great care has been taken to provide against piracy. The upper deck passengers being completely shut off from access to the bridge, engine room or forward amidships. A second class saloon and state rooms for 32 passengers have been provided, the state rooms being large and airy, each being provided with two side scuttles. The first class saloon and eight single berth cabins have been arranged at forward end of bridge deck while the officers and engineers are berthed at aft end of bridge. Captain's house, chart room and wireless room are on the boat deck. The compradores staff have been accommodated aft in the poop.

The vessel is provided with steam windlass and capstan forward, also a warping capstan aft on poop. Steam steering gear is housed in poop and actuated from bridge by telemotor gear. Eight steam winches have been provided to work 8 steel derricks, one 15 ton derrick and one 30 ton derrick.

The Speed

The vessel is rigged as a two-masted schooner and fitted with reciprocating engines driving on shaft and capable of driving the vessel at a speed of over 11 knots loaded.

Machinery and boilers have been constructed entirely by The Taikeo Dockyard.

The "Taiyuan," which is the first of a new class of vessels designated the "II" class to distinguish them from well-known and popular "I" Class, will be engaged on the Shanghai, Canton run, and it is hoped to have her on the run about the beginning of December.

ON THE "JEFFERSON"

Passengers in the "President Jefferson" from the Pacific and Shanghai, which arrived here to-day include:

Mr. C. E. Broufield, medical missionary, en route to Swatow, accompanied by his wife.

Mr. J. E. Pickhard, motivator engineer, accompanied by his wife.

Mr. C. Barlow de Pidell, manager of a large tea concern in Europe, accompanied by his wife.

Mr. A. B. Gresap, President of the Lazren Brokerage Co. of Manila.

Mr. D. E. Graham, connected with Cornell Bros., accompanied by his wife and two children, in Manila.

Mr. R. J. Harrison, a well known lumber man and head of several companies bearing his name in the Philippines.

Mr. L. G. Hersey, President of the American Electric Co. of Manila.

Mr. N. S. Salesky, Vice-President and General Manager of the Agusun Coal Co. of Manila.

Col. F. Palmer, a well known writer en route to Manila.

After the Police had taken statements from the officers and passengers, Pressmen were allowed to board the "Deli Maru" at 6.30 p.m. when a graphic account of the attack was narrated to them by the officers.

A "China Mail" representative, in an interview with the master of the ship (Captain Yamamoto), was told that the pirates about 12 in number, had embarked at Swatow as steerage passengers. At 3.30 a.m. on Saturday, the second officer, Mr. Hashimoto, was on the bridge. The Captain and Chief Officer were asleep in their respective cabins, when they were rudely awakened by the firing of revolver shots. They rushed to the bridge, and there they saw the Indian guard lying on the bridge deck, and the second officer facing an armed man with his hands up.

Officers' Cabin Ransacked

The Captain and the mate were also overpowered. Armed men were rishing hither and thither at the command of a young woman, dressed in black silk and wearing a pair of green satin slippers. She held a gun in each hand.

Some of the pirates were busily looting the steerage passengers, and two of them went into the Captain's cabin to get what they could find. They took away some clothing and a small sum of money. A visit was then paid to the Chief Officer's cabin but nothing was taken from there. The second officer was the heaviest loser among the officers. Two gold wrist watches, a sum of money, and all his clothing were taken away.

Lifeboats Commandered

The pirates then took the Chief Officer back to the bridge and there forced him to steer for Bias Bay. Arriving at the pirates' rendezvous at 7.30 a.m. the freebooters fired several shots in order to draw the attention of their comrades on shore. A great number of men rushed out, but no boats were sent to take the pirates ashore. The marauders then commandeered two of the

BIAS BAY GANG

HOW THE "DELI MARU" WAS ATTACKED

INDIAN GUARDS WOUNDED

The first news of the piracy of the s.s. "Deli Maru" was contained in a wireless message received by the Royal Naval authorities early on Saturday morning, and H.M.S. "Sandwich" (one of the new sloops on the station) at once proceeded out to Bias Bay. She did not, however, meet with the "Deli Maru" until 10.30 a.m. By that time all the pirates had made good their escape.

The "Deli Maru" came into the harbour at about 4.30 p.m. Flags summoning the Police and medical assistance were hoisted on her mainmast, and immediately in her wake was a police launch. On her portside, fore and aft, there were signs that the loot had been lowered from there.

The Casualties

Anchoring off Stonecutters' Island, the "Deli Maru" was boarded by Police officers, the Port Medical Officer, and ambulance men. Soon afterwards, a stretcher bearing an Indian guard was

ANY REPRISAL?

Ever since direct action was begun against pirates of Bias Bay and Hongkai Bay a few years ago, more than 50 such outlaws have been brought to book by direct conviction—a minority in the Courts of Hong Kong. The last arrest was made after the British s.s. "Anking" had been attacked, about a year ago, and one of the gang was captured here with loot.

It is seldom that a Japanese merchantman has been brought to Bias Bay and it will be interesting to see if the Imperial Government will take any measures—in view of a precedent having set by Britain.

Lowered into a Police launch. This man was shot in four places—a bullet in the head and chest, and two bullets in the forearm. On the sole of his feet blood stains could be seen—a silent testimony to what had taken place on board.

Following this unfortunate man came another Indian with his hand in a sling. He was shot in the arm. Another Indian then came down the gangway with a bullet wound in the chest. The three men were at once rushed to the Government Civil Hospital. The condition of the first man was said to be serious. None of the four bullets had been extracted. Although he was still conscious when taken ashore, it was feared that he would not survive the operation.

THE MAGIC EAST

A BEAUTIFUL CRUISE FOR THE TOURIST

DOOLAR LINE ENTERPRISE

"Follow the blossoms" is the attractive title to a brochure we have just received from the agent of the Dollar Steamship Line and American Mail Line, which announces a 1930 Oriental winter cruise through the Philippines, China, Manchuria, Korea, and Japan, in collaboration with the American Express Co.

The new Winter-time trial through the Orient, and the one which the American Mail Line advocates and has adopted for this Cruise, passes quickly and without stopover through the ports of Yokohama, Kobe, Shanghai and Hong Kong, making its initial start in the Philippines—a most delightful season. The by moving northward, leisurely, as shown in the enclosed itinerary, the travellers will journey under weather conditions that should be entirely charming.

Cruise Management & Condensitop
"From your hour of sailing from Seattle, throughout your entire journey and until you disembark finally either in Seattle or in San Francisco (return by the latter part being optional), you will be under the highly experienced and most meticulous care of two very capable organisations—the American Mail Line and the American Express Company," says the brochure.

Luxuriant Ocean Travel

"The trans-Pacific passenger liners of the American Mail Line are superb in seaworthiness and swiftness—sumptuous in equipment and furnishing. All staterooms are 'outside.' There are superbly mattress bed instead of the old-fashioned berths—but cold water day and night—thermos bottles—electric fans and electric heating—airy, soft-curtained partitions. There are splendid staircases, dining rooms and social halls—and glass-enclosed promenade decks. The cuisine service provides food famous for its excellence on all the seven seas. Hiking, tennis, deck polo, shuffle-board, dancing, moving picture shows and good books will fill in the gaps between hours of just lazing in a deck chair that will be placed for you in a sunny corner."

Shore-Side Travel

"Your Oriental journeys ashore will be under the highly capable directorship of an American Express Company officer who knows his Orient thoroughly. He will procure your rail tickets for you, secure your reservations at excellent hotels, arrange for your rissha and motor transportation, care for your baggage transfers, select your local guides and pay your fees at temple entrances. He will counsel you generally in matters of Oriental money, shopping, prices—and upon all the hundreds of little problems that may be new to you if this is to be your first trip to these countries of the Far East. His services will be unobtrusive along these latter lines, but invaluable when needed.

The local guides that will be provided for you en route will be selected for their integrity, courtesy and their intensive knowledge of their special territories.

Well-Rounded Itinerary

"While a lifetime might be spent in acquiring an intimate knowledge of the Far East, you will visit, as a member of the Oriental Winter Cruise, all the principal centres of interest in the five Oriental countries to be visited. At each stopping-place your local itineraries will be so balanced as not to suffice you with any one phase of Oriental life, customs or scenery. You will not be bored with too many temples, for instance. Your conductor will arrange stops so that you will visit also the fascinating shops and bazaars, tea houses, famous gardens, theatres and beauty spots. You will be taken from the highways into the byways—to quaint villages and country places. You will observe the homes of rissha pullers and artisans, farmers and financiers. You will peer under the hoods of sampans and junks. For after all, although the dead past and almost forgotten tombs have their places in the general scheme of things, life is what most of us are vitally interested in." The rate per person, from Seattle, is $1,435 (gold).

This includes all first class steamer fares and all shore travelling described in the itinerary. Afloat it covers excellent outside stateroom accommodation and all meals on American Mail Line and Dollar Steamship Line ships. Ashore it includes quarters in splendid hotels; railway expenses, including sleepers where necessary; rissha and motor hire except for private expeditions; breakfasts, luncheons and dinners; transfers between stations and to hotels; sightseeing; the transportation of baggage and conductors' and guides' services.

It does not cover single rooms or private baths on steamers or in hotels, nor personal items such as laundry, gratuities, beverages, deck-chairs or expenses not ordered by the Tour Conductor in charge. Special accommodations may be secured on payment of actual additional cost.

PRESS CRITICISM

When Dean Swift dipped his quill the public officials of his day trembled. They knew that those vitriolic pamphlets of his, (as powerful then as is a newspaper campaign in this century) could stir the intellectuals to indignation, and the masses to agitation. Small as was the voice of the people in that ignorant and insanitary century, it could lead to riots and public scenes, such as, the Newgate affair, in which even the Lord Mayor's life was in jeopardy. The pamphlet was the coeval of the modern newspaper, and its aim was to right public wrongs and lay bare the iniquities of officialdom. There was full scope for the pamphleteer's invective. Justice was not always administered in the Courts of Law; the statutes were permeated with disproportions and were anything but humane. The hospitals not infrequently encouraged death and pestilence, and surgical science was little more than an experiment. The victims of insanity were treated with brutality, and placed in chains, as persons possessed of demons and evil spirits. The watchmen who policed the streets were corrupt and unreliable, often acting as "fences" or receivers of stolen property. The land was under the dark cloud of poverty, disease, and ignorance. That was only two hundred years ago—a mere step in the march of civilization. Vast changes have wrought the social fabric anew, and the pamphlet, except as a means of

That criticism makes enemies and stings the consciences of those who are subjected to it, we are prepared to believe. No one likes to be shown to the public as he really is; nobody or committee is pleased suddenly to find the searching rays turned full upon its failures or shortcomings. There is so much that is bad in modern society, which passes the average man's attention, and is winked at by officialdom, that criticism is still a dire necessity, and will remain so as long as those who hold the reigns of civic power continue to attempt to pass around the faulty and defective.

In recent leading articles we have found it necessary to draw attention to the apathy of the Government in regard to broadcasting; to the need for an up-to-date civil hospital; to the disgraceful state of the public museum, and other matters vitaly affecting the Colony. It is in no carpings or graceless spirit that these have been written. They are intended as a stimulant to the body politic, and conceived in an effort to awaken those responsible to a consideration of their duties. In this, as in much else, it is the spirit that counts, but that spirit must be mutual and not one-sided.

The following orders have been issued by the Hon. Mr. T. H. King, Acting Captain Superintendent of Police:—

The debates will be resumed in the Estimates and on the other motions moved by the Colonial Secretary at the last meeting.

P.C. CHARGED

SERIOUS ALLEGATION OF BRIBERY

Chinese Police Constable No. 244 was on Saturday placed under arrest on three serious counts, as follows:—(1) accepting a bribe; (2) larceny of a fountain pen; and (3) receiving the fountain pen.

The third charge is an alternative to the one of larceny of the pen.

In view of the fact that the constable is to appear before a Magistrate to-day, no particulars of the affair could be given other than that the offences were alleged to have been committed at the "Star" ferry wharf on Wednesday.

GARDENS OF CHINA

What is the essence of a garden, the vital spark that the suburban patch shares with the roofs of Babylon or prehistoric courtyards of China? Now it happens, curiously, that Japan and Spain, on each of which a suggestive book has just been published in London, are key countries in the history of the world's gardens. Japan, with absorptive and imitative genius, introduced the garden idea from China, or perhaps from India via China, and made out of it her own spiritual cult. Spain, the European country nearest Africa, was planted with Arab gardens, deriving from the Moslem Paradise Garden, once seen in greatest perfection in India. Untraceable waves of migratory impulse have since completed the transference of the garden cult from East to West. There may be little likeness between Shizemem in Kyoto, the Taj Mahal in Agra, the Alcazar at Seville, and, say, Sutton Place in Surrey; but it would do all our gardeners good to be more conscious of their origins, and to know of what a stock they are scions.

Mr. P. Sands, M.A. (Cantab.) was ordained to Deacon's Orders yesterday in St. Paul's Church, Lexington Spa, by the Bishop of Coventry. The Vicar of the Church is the Rev. Geo. E. Arrowsmith, M.A., F.R.G.S., a former Assistant Chaplain of St. Andrew's Church, Kowloon, when the Rev. G. Reginald Lindsay, M.A., was Vicar.

CORRESPONDENCE

GOLF COURSE FOR THE CHINESE

To the Editor of the "China Mail," Sir.—In his Budget speech, the Hon. Mr. Shou-son Chow is reported to have advocated the grant of a site for a Golf Course for the exclusive use of the Chinese of Hong Kong.

I consider the advocacy both undesirable and unnecessary. It is undesirable because valiant efforts have been and are being made to promote the utmost concord between the various communities in Hong Kong, and a clarion call for segregation is most regrettable.

The advocacy is unnecessary because the Chinese do not admit that they are unfit or ineligible for membership in the existing Clubs of this Colony.

Thank you for publishing this letter.

Yours etc.,
COMMON SENSE.

Hong Kong, Sept. 21.

AN APOLOGY

With reference to Mr. Strellet's remarks at the opening of the case against Privates McEwan and Shea at the First Magistracy this morning, we wish to take this opportunity of repeating what we said in Court—that there was no intention of making any reference in the article complained of to the two men before the Court nor to show any disrespect to the Court.

K.O.S.B. CONCERT

RECOGNITION OF KOWLOON DOCK WORK

A CHALLENGE CUP

An enjoyable concert by the band of the 2nd Battalion the King's Own Scottish Borderers was held last evening on the lawn facing the Taiwan beach, and was attended by a large gathering of members of the staff of the Kowloon Docks and Officers and men of the K.O.S.B.

An interesting ceremony was performed when R. S. M. Parkinson, on behalf of the regiment, made presentations of silver salvers to Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Dyer, and Mr. and Mrs. G. Duncan, as a mark of appreciation of the good work which they had done for the Borderers during their stay in the Colony. These were handed over to the two ladies.

The battalion also presented a handsome challenge cup to the Kowloon Dock Recreation Club. It was received on behalf of the Club by Mr. H. Cuthill.

Both Mr. Dyer and Mr. Duncan thanked the Borderers for their handsome gifts. Mr. Dyer said that he would not say good-bye to the "Kobis" as he would always hope to see them again "somewhere." Mr. Duncan disclaimed any credit which he said, was all due to Mr. and Mrs. Dyer.

KOWLOON F.C.

SUCCESSFUL OPEN AIR CONCERT

A JOLLY GOOD EVENING

In spite of the threatening weather, a large audience attended the open air concert of the Kowloon Football Club on Saturday evening. The rain held back, and every one had an enjoyable time.

The programme, which could not have been bettered for variety, was contributed to by a number of new amateur artists, who all acquitted themselves admirably and fully deserved the applause which greeted their turns.

The Symphonic Jazz Gang opened the programme with a "peppy" tune which was a fine indication to the audience of the good things which were in store for them. Then followed the Misses Hind with a duet in which they sang the popular "A Desert Song" in a very pleasing manner, which made them immediately favourites.

Messrs. Oscar Eager and V. C. Labrum were the "humour merchants" of the programme and put over some real "rib ticklers." Mr. Eager appeared in the first part and greatly amused with some funny stories and tongue-twisters—brand new ones! Mr. Labrum was in his usual fine humour in the second part of the programme with "Nuf Sed," a well arranged bit of nonsense.

Mr. and Mrs. G. McLeod contributed no fewer than three items. They are both excellent singers and were heard to advantage both in solos and duets.

The Misses Flo and Nellie Field were enthusiastically received in an item entitled "A Glimpse of Jazz." Dick Barty and a piano was a very enjoyable item. Dick is a clever syncopator and a fine singer.

The Symphonic Jazz Gang again opened the second part of the programme in which was another singer and player in the person of Mr. H. Musso who twanged a banjo like they do in Dixie, or wherever it is that banjos "grow" and were discovered by the "Darkies" who placed that "cross between a tambourine and mandoline" on the musical map. Item No. 6 in the second part threatened "The Gang will finish" and they certainly did it with a "riot" of music which was thrilling if wild finale to an excellent programme!

The accompanists for the evening were Messrs. R. Baldwin, A.T.C.L., and A. Spary, whilst great credit for the success of the entertainment is due to Mr. L. A. Jeeves, the hard working stage manager.

COMEDY

"GOOD MORNING BILL" AGAIN PRODUCED

On Saturday night "Good Morning Bill," a clever play in which P. G. Wodehouse is amusing at the expense of the medical profession, was performed before an excellent and appreciative audience. The general standard of the acting was very good. Miss Isobel Pargetter was crisp and direct as Sally Smith, M.D., and good looking enough to account for Bill's infatuation. Miss April Vivian wore a dazzling pair of pyjamas in the first act, and acted with charm. As "Bill" John Manuel was human and sustained his role well; whilst Alec Alexander as the "stage" lord and Charles Bradley as Bill's uncle were both excellent.

WINSTON WORKS

MR. CHURCHILL AS BRICKLAYER

TRADE UNION & SECRETARY

The Fulham branch of the Amalgamated Union of Building Trade Workers has issued a resolution for the annual conference in London, "strongly censuring the Executive Council for its upholding the dignity of the Union by summarily dealing with Brothers G. J. Hicks, general secretary, and James Lane who have violated the general rules and brought discredit on the organisation by proposing Mr. Winston Churchill for membership."

It will be recalled that while Mr. Churchill was Chancellor of the Exchequer and was diverting himself in spare time by the building of a brick wall, he was invited to join the trade union of the craft and accepted the invitation. He was waited upon at the Treasury by Mr. James Lane, who was then the Mayor of Battersea and an official of the union, and a membership card was formally handed to the Chancellor of the Exchequer.

When the incident became known there was a storm of protest from branches, and the Executive decided that Mr. Churchill was not eligible for membership. The decision produced an exchange of pointed letters between the executive officers and Mr. Churchill.

At the headquarters of the Union the statement was made that some time ago Mr. Churchill intimated that he would not trouble further to challenge the Executive's decision, although he was inclined at first to contest the legality of the position. He has retained his membership card as a memento of the incident.

Mr. Lane offered to return the cheque for 10s. 6d. which Mr. Churchill forwarded at his entrance fee and subscription, but Mr. Churchill stated that he did not want it back, and this also has been kept as a memento, although it has not been paid into the Union funds.

A MACHINE STUDYING ITSELF

When asked in an interview the other day concerning the "practical value" of the many experiments which he has conducted upon animals with regard to the physiology of the brain, Dr. Ivan Petrovich Pavlov stated that he and his co-workers are handicapped by the fact that the workings of the brain are being probed and analyzed by the brain itself. "It is a case of a machine studying itself," he explained. Dr. Pavlov, designated as the dean of the physiologists attending the Thirteenth International Physiological Congress being held in Boston, received the Nobel prize in medicine a quarter of a century ago.

And yet about all that Dr. Pavlov could say in answer to the question referred to was, "If we hope to understand and control human behaviour we have to know the elementary units on which it is based, starting our work with the less complex behaviour of animals," while adding that he hoped with considerable confidence that the work which he and his associates are doing would be of direct benefit to mankind.

Without in the least discrediting the efforts which Dr. Pavlov has put forth and the honesty of purpose which doubtless has animated his endeavours, such an assurance seems but poor compensation for the fact that to reach his conclusions which, on his own recognition, are really so uncertain, hundreds if not thousands of animals have been sacrificed on the altar of so-called science. The fact that Dr. Pavlov is scarcely an unbiased witness is, moreover, indicated by a previous statement made in the interview referred to, when he said that he believed that the further pursuit of the study of the brain would lead to a greater advance in human knowledge than any other study, and added, "I admit that to make this statement is a sign of weakness in me, which I can excuse only by the fact of my intense interest in this subject."

After all, however, it is the fact that the study he would have the world believe is of such vital importance is simply the attempted study of a machine by itself which indicates the fallacy underlying it most clearly. The effort to discover the functional activity of non-intelligent matter by itself certainly is a paradox. And to do so by means of the torture and slaughtering of innocent animals turns it into a tragedy.

GETTING IN TRIM

SOCCERITES PRACTISE FOR NEW SEASON

CURIOUS SOUTH CHINA TEAM

Local soccerites are getting in trim for the new official season and three practice (or "friendly") matches were played on Saturday. It is understood that there will be an almost full programme six days hence.

Saturday's games were fairly interesting, two of them concerning senior players. A curious "South China A.A. XI" visited Soekumpoo, with four non-Chinese players and defeated an Army combination. A junior South China team lost on the same ground. The Hong Kong Football Club entertained the Royal Navy and lost.

ARMY v. SOUTH CHINA

H.E. the General Officer Commanding (Major-General J. W. Sandilands, C.B., C.M.G., D.S.O.), accompanied by Captain D. R. M. Cameron, A.D.C. were among those present at Soekumpoo to witness an interesting trial match which resulted in a victory for South China Athletic Association by the odd goal in five over an Army XI.

Somewhat to the surprise of the spectators the "South China team" included four Club de Recreio players. Neil was brought in at outside right for the Army in place of Skiggs. The teams lined up as follows:-

Army:-Fletcher (R.A.); Gardner (K.O.S.B.); Hayward (S.L.I.); Everest (K.O.S.B.); Davey (K.O.S.B.); Joyce (R.A.); Neil (S.L.I.); Stock (K.O.S.B.); Rayson (S.L.I.); Bewley-Bull (S.L.I.); Fletcher (S.L.I.).

South China:-Beltrao; Li Tinsang; Souzen; Leung Wing-chiu; Leung Wing-tak; Lai Kwong-hai; Brown; Ward; Fung King-cheung; Cheng Shui-hong; Ip Pak-wa.

Referee:-Mr. Mackie.

The Chinese were soon on the aggressive, Fung King-cheung being a source of trouble to Davey on several occasions. Fletcher was soon called upon to save from the centre-forward, and got the ball away in confident fashion.

Chinese Led First

The Army forwards were slow in getting into their stride, although Stock nearly came through with a smart dribble which had the visiting defence napping. A fine run by Butcher was wasted through none of the other forwards being up to receive his centre, the ball being cleared with a strong punt by Li Tin-sang.

The South China forwards were quickly back to the attack and Fletcher brought off several smart saves before being well beaten by Cheng Shui-hong.

The Army played more confident game after this reverse and had a fair share of the play, Butcher eventually making an opening for Rayson to bring the score level. Beltrao was at fault in letting the ball get past him but made ample amends later, some of his clearances being of a very high order.

South China pressed hard just before the interval, Fung going very close on more than one occasion.

Half time:-Army 1, South China 1.

Army Lose Advantage

The standard of play improved after the interval, the Army settling down to play cohesive football and giving the visiting defence a worrying time. Beltrao made several very fine saves before being beaten by Rayson. Butcher again playing an important part in the work which led up to the score.

Unfortunately the Army did not keep up the pace very long, and South China began to monopolise the play, the forwards indulging in some pattern weaving which soon had the home defence in a tangle. Ip Pak-wa was responsible for the equaliser, a fast rising shot beating Fletcher all the way; and a penalty for hands provided the winning point. Fung doing the necessary with a well-directed drive.

Result:-Army 2, South China 3.

CLUB v. ROYAL NAVY

There was little to arouse enthusiasm in this game on the Club ground on Saturday, both teams giving a lifeless and uninteresting display, while the few attacks which were instigated with method were spoiled by erratic shooting. The teams were as follows:-

Hong Kong F.C.:—Rodger; Bishop; Wallington; Gilchrist; Ratner; Watson; Reid; Wilson; Holmes; Alexander; Tramitsky. Royal Navy:—Wright; Spattling; Ward; Stoner; Brodgen; Kenting; Butler; Mollett; Kernick; Weeks; Blythe.

Referee:-Mr. F. Smith.

The game opened quietly, both teams being slow in finding their feet. Butler and Mollett started a dash down the right wing for the Navy but were smartly pulled up by Watson.

Missed Chances

After ten minutes of even exchanges the Navy forwards broke away and Weeks opened the scoring from close range. Wilson had a great chance to equalise just afterwards but hung on to the ball too long, his final shot being diverted behind. Alexander had a tiny moment later but Wright rose to the occasion with a clever save.

Each end was being visited in turn but the forwards were right of the target. Kernick and Tramitsky both missing easy chances. Wilson looked a certain scorer for the Club after a smart run through the backs, but his shot was also well off the mark.

Half time:-Club 0, Royal Navy 1.

The home team had more of the game after the change of ends. Wright cleared well from Reid, whilst the same player was unluckily a moment later with a shot which struck the crossbar; the ball rebounding just clear of the goal line.

Club Improved

The Navy were soon back on the attack, and after Weeks had missed an open goal the same player made amends by finding the net with a well-placed shot. From now onwards the Club did the most of the attacking, Alexander and Tramitsky being the most prominent in the vanguard, but their finishing frustrated all their efforts and no further scoring took place.

Result:-Club 0, Royal Navy 2.

A JUNIOR TRIAL

A match between the Reserves of the 1st Battalion Somerset Light Infantry and South China "A" team was the first item on the programme at Soekumpoo and resulted in a victory for the military team by two goals to nil.

The Somersets possess a nippy set of forwards and should do well in the 2nd division of the League this season for the whole team goes all out from start to finish.

South China had many an opportunity of opening their account, but the forwards kept the ball too close and were frequently robbed when right in front of goal.

The opening goal was scored five minutes from the start, Guest steering the ball in off the upright after Cotton had struck the cross-bar.

Palmer Shines

A notable feature of the opening half was the clever display of Palmer, the diminutive Somersett outside right, who repeatedly beat the South China defence in a battle of wits and put across many fine centres which might well have been turned to account. The Somersets held their advantage to the interval.

A free kick to South China right on the line of the penalty area looked dangerous, and Wallis was twice called upon to save well directed shots. Play continued to favour the Somersets and Cornwell added a further point after the South China goalie had fumbled badly.

South China made plucky efforts to get through in the closing stages, but without success, Mead being particularly sound in the Somersett defence.

Result:-S.L.I. Reserves 2, South China "A" 0.

LAWN BOWLS

YACHT CLUB BEATEN

Deciding Matches To Be Played

Three fixtures in the Lawn Bowls League were decided on Saturday, bringing the season's programme to a close, with the exception, of course, of the deciding matches, as two teams in Division I and three teams in Division II are bracketed for top place.

The two games in Division I, in which the Kowloon C.C. soundly trounced the Taikoo R.C., and the Club de Recreio defeated the Police R.C., had no bearing on the championship.

By accounting for the Yacht Club in Division II, the Taikoo R.C. have placed themselves on level terms with the Kowloon B.G.C. and the Civil Service C.C. A triangular knock-out competition, in which one team will draw a bye, will have to be played to decide the winners.

Division I

K.C.C. v. TAIKOO R.C.

On their own ground, the Kowloon C.C. defeated the Taikoo R.C. by 43 shots.

Silkstone, scoring six points, in the first five heads, started in great style against Ferguson. The visiting skip retaliated with a three and a two, but immediately after conceded a four. In the latter half of the game, Ferguson only scored on one head, the 16th, when he got a five, while Silkstone piled on another 17 points.

In the first eleven heads on the second rink, the visitors, skipped by Wotherspoon, notched a single at the 5th end, and gave away no less than 22 shots. Gibson's quartette ran out winners by 30 points (37-7), the former's total including two fives in the last two heads.

The last rink saw a close tussle. Although Lammert, for the home team led by five shots after the 3rd head, Drummond soon caught up and eventually won by one point.

Commencing from the fourth head with an advantage of one point, the Taikoo R.C. had matters much their own way.

FILIPINOS LOSE

SURPRISED IN BASEBALL LEAGUE

KIAORAS' STURDY PLAY

The Filipino nine received a shock at the hands of the Kiaoras in a match in the Baseball League on Saturday, to whom they lost by one run.

Opening with a single in the first inning, the Filipinos conceded two runs to their opponents. Four of their men romped home in the second frame but the Kiaoras retaliated with a couple.

In the third canto, the Chinese lads blanked out the Filipinos and chalked up four runs for themselves.

Facing a deficit of two runs in the last inning, the "Phillies" made a determined effort to turn the tables on the "bades" of the League but a splendid home run by David Leonard was as far as they got.

On the play, the Kiaoras fully deserved their victory, although the Filipinos may be said to have taken things a little too easily.

The fielding of the winners was of a better quality, C. K. Leung at centre-field showing up brilliantly. There was also a marked difference in the pitching, Lee belying the repeated suggestions that he would never make good on the mound.

Teams lined up as follows:

Philippines	Kiaoras

The trouble started when the Chinese, resenting the order preventing them from landing, attacked the Customs inspectors with knives and clubs.]

"No, dear," replied her husband with a smile, "we were talking about socks."

The Expenditure Accounts of the Colony have been examined in accordance with the general procedure. Three hundred and ninety-nine (399) Queries were raised in the course of the examination of the general expenditure accounts included in which are two hundred and forty-two (242) Queries on the Store Accounts, of which three hundred and ninety-seven (397) have been satisfactorily settled.

New Leases

The number of Queries raised during the year under review shows an increase of 254 as compared with the Revenue Queries for the preceding financial year. The departmental accounts to which this increase can be mainly allocated are as follows:—Post Office: Radio Telegrams, Imports and Exports and Harbour Office and the following explanations are submitted for your information.

Post Office: Radio Telegrams
During the year the activities of the Radio Office have been extended to other Administrations resulting in an increase of messages which have been subjected to detailed examination.

Imports and Exports
Investigation into the accounts of the Opium Monopoly as affecting the disposal of confiscated opium through action by the Police resulted in numerous observations, and from the replies to the questions raised it was found necessary to submit to Government certain recommendations which, having been put into practice, will ensure a more satisfactory system of accounting for all confiscated goods.

Harbour Office

It was considered necessary to raise a considerable number of observations on the question of the use of Government Launches by Government Officials without payment. His Excellency the Governor has recently directed the Treasurer and Harbour Master in co-operation with this department to frame regulations as to the use of such vessels, which should result in the matter being placed on a more satisfactory basis.

Revenue Decreases

The principle decreases as compared with the Estimates are:—Liquor Licences

Stamp Duties

Tobacco Duties

China Companies Fees

Arrears of Revenue

A statement showing the arrears of Revenue at the termination of the financial year 1928 is enclosed showing a total sum of $320,185.52 outstanding on December 31, 1928, since which date, and on July 31, 1929, the position is as follows:

Collected since 1-1-1929

Written off

Outstanding on 31-7-1929

Total

$320,185.52

Reviewing the statement, it will be observed that with the exception of outstanding revenue in respect of Leased Lands, and Premia on New Leases the Treasury control over the collection of revenue is satisfactorily maintained.

With reference to the outstanding Revenue under the heads Premia and Leased Lands, I would explain that these arrears are the result of unforeseen difficulties which have arisen in connection with the sale of a large quantity of confiscated drugs through the Crown Agents, otherwise the payments would have exceeded the receipts from other sources by approximately $13,000. In view of the decrease of receipts it was considered necessary to carry the whole of the balance of the Reward Fund forward to supplement the 1929 account.

Railway

A copy of the Annual Report of the Kowloon-Canton Railway for the year 1928 is submitted. The various statements contained therein have been examined and found correct. During the year repeated surprise surveys were made at all stations and the stock of tickets and cash earnings checked.

Praya East Account

The account has been examined monthly and all observations made have been satisfactorily settled.

The Reclamation Scheme is in an advanced stage of completion, Roads and the necessary Drainage Works being in course of construction. The estimated cost of the Scheme has been exceeded and the participants were required to meet the excess cost, being given the opportunity of paying further calls by cash or accepting the liability of an overdraft on the Praya East Account at 6 per cent.

With the Hong Kong and Shanghai Banking Corporation to finance the further cost of the scheme. In the majority of cases the latter course was adopted by the subscribers.

The Government is granting Leases to Subscribers desirous of entering into occupation of their respective Lots, with the proviso, that the proportionate liability on the excess cost over the estimate will be met by the Lessees on completion of the scheme and when the amount is finally known.

Audit Staff

A statement is submitted showing changes in the Audit Staff during 1928.

I made my Annual tour of Inspection to Wei-hai-wei and Shanghai during the period from June 15 to July 30, 1928, my report on which as stated is already in your hands. Mr. T. Dallin acted as Auditor during the period of my absence.

Capt. A. F. B. Howard, M.C., was appointed 2nd Assistant Auditor and arrived in the Colony on November 3, 1928.

Mr. E. Maughan, Senior Clerk, proceeded on home leave on March 3, 1928 and returned to the Colony and resumed duty on November 8, 1928.

Mr. T. G. Stokes was appointed to the Senior Clerical and Accounting Staff of the Government on April 1, 1928, and posted to this department.

Miss B. V. Franklin was posted to this department as stenographer on August 1, 1928.

During the year European Probationers for the Senior Clerical and Accounting Staff were tem-

HUGE PLOT AGAINST SOVIET

"RESURRECTION"

ORGANISATIONS TREMENDOUS SECRET VOTE

A FIRM FOOTHOLD

Leningrad, Sept. 15.

Seventy members of an organisation named "Resurrection" to-day were sentenced to prison terms of varying length following their participation in a tremendous secret vote favouring "Intellectual Counter-Revolution."

In announcing conviction of the intellectual revolutionaries, the Government failed to reveal whether any death penalties have been meted out.

It is declared that the organisation was well on its way toward a firm foothold in scientific institutions, churches and schools. By underground methods the "Resurrectionists" were spreading anti-Soviet propaganda.—United Press.

HATRY COMPANIES

ACTION BY THE STOCK EXCHANGE

A VISIT TO THE POLICE

London, Saturday.

The crisis in connection with the Hatry group of companies is the sole topic of the moment.

Conflicting reports are current in regard to the dramatic action, but the latest positive statement is that Hatry and his three colleagues were interviewed by the Director of Public Prosecutions yesterday, after which he proceeded to the City of London Police Headquarters.

It is understood that no charge was made against them up to an early hour this morning.

The Stock Exchange has applied for power for the suspension of dealing in the Hatry Companies' shares for the first time since the War.—Reuter.

False Pretences Charge

London, Later.

The prominent financier Clarence Hatry, and three associates, Edmund Daniels, John G. Dixon, and A. E. Taboo, were charged at the Guildhall to-day with conspiracy to obtain £209,141 by false pretences. This is the outcome of the sensational collapse in the value of shares in companies sponsored by Hatry.

Fictitious Certificates

The four defendants were remanded, bail being refused. The prosecuting counsel outlined the indictment, and said that the defendants, as directors of the Austin Friars Trust, obtained the sum mentioned from Mr. George Russell of the Porchester Trust, by depositing fictitious, valueless certificates, purporting to represent the script of Wakefield Corporation stock. He declared that the defendants of their own accord visited the Public Prosecutor, jointly admitting responsibility. Therefore, counsel intimated, further charges were likely to follow.—Reuter.

Anxiety in Berlin

The effect of the Hatry sensation abroad is instanced in Berlin where heavy falls were experienced in the Stock Exchange, and

DISARMAMENT

DELEGATE WITHDRAWS RESOLUTION

QUESTION STILL OPEN

Geneva, Saturday.

Viscount Cecil, who withdrew his disarmament resolution, stated that the three points therein were still open before the Preparatory Disarmament Commission. Moreover, the door was still open for further consideration of the fourth and most important point, namely, the limitation and reduction of war material. He reserved the right to press this matter on all occasions most vigorously.

In the meantime he accepted the resolution of M. Politis (Greece), couched in less specific terms, stressing the need of mutual concessions, and urging the expedition of the work of the Preparatory Commission.—Reuter.

Geneva, Later.

The Third Committee has adopted M. Politis' resolution.—Reuter.

DEMONSTRATIONS IN GERMANY

BILL CAUSES RIOT

CLASHES BETWEEN NATIONALISTS AND "REDS"

FREE FIGHTS AND SHOTS

Berlin, Yesterday.

A hundred persons were arrested, mostly Communists, in the course of collisions between Nationalists and Communists this afternoon during Nationalist demonstration in favour of a plebiscite on the Bill repudiating all post-war treaties agreements, and providing that any German minister or plenipotentiary who signed the agreement, thus imposing burdens on Germany, should be tried for high treason. Communists and free fights followed. A number of shots were fired, but nobody was injured.—Reuter.

"BOTNIA" OUTRAGE

FIRST OFFICER NOW THE ONLY CAPTIVE

STRANGE PROCESSION

Shanghai, Saturday.

The steamer "Botnia" which stranded on a sand bar and was attacked by bandits, was refloated yesterday evening.

It now transpires that the pirates released all the captives except Captain Haaland and the Chief Officer, Mr. Westerheim, within a few hours. Hence Mr. Westerheim is now the sole remaining captive in the hands of the pirates.—Reuter.

Officers Held for $500,000

A Shanghai cable of September 15 stated:

While the Norwegian freighter "Botnia" was stranded on a sand bar near Haichao, pirates removed her captain and officers and are holding them for $500,000 Mexican ransom, it was learned here to-day.

The pirates removed from the ship Captain A. Haaland, First Mate H. Westerheim and five Chinese members of the ship's accounting staff.

They threaten that unless the ransom is paid speedily the seized officers from the ship will be subjected to death by torture.

The Norwegian minister at Peking is communicating with the Chinese Government at Nanking regarding the plight of the Norwegians. The Norwegian Consul General here also is acting on behalf of his countrymen. He has enlisted the Nationalist Government's Bureau of Foreign Affairs.

It is generally feared that the officers from the "Botnia" will be murdered before relief efforts are successful.

A lurid story is involved in the capture of the ship. They boarded the "Botnia" from junks and rushed the officers and members of the crew with pistols and knives.

Captain Escapes

A Shanghai cable of Friday stated:

Captain Haaland of the Norwegian steamer "Botnia," has escaped alone from the bandits and reached the Panpu port of Haichao.

There are no details available at present concerning his experiences or the fate of the other officers.

Norwegian Sailors' Demand

An Oslo cable of Friday stated:

The Norwegian Sailors' Association has asked the Government to pay the ransom demanded by pirates who carried off the master and chief officer of the "Botnia," and not to await the result of negotiations with the Chinese Government. A big meeting of officers of the merchant fleet at Bergen passed a similar resolution, and said that a conference ought to be held by interested nations to consider the problem of Chinese pirates.

RED'S JER GIL

New York, Sept. 13.

More than 100 Communists to-day gathered outside the Mexican Consulate here and jeered and jeered President Emilio Portes Gil of Mexico.

"Down with American Imperialism" roared the crowd.

"Down with Gil" was
